A TRIBUTE TO TEACHERS

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."—Matthew 25- vs 21.

We believe that God must have a special place in His Kingdom for loving, faithful teachers, close by the place He has waiting for loving, faithful mothers, for they somehow seem akin in His eyes, we do believe.

From the age of six until around the late teens or early twenties the pupil must spend many hours in a school room under the guidance of a teacher, and it is a tragedy when that teacher is inadequate to the great task entrusted to her.

That Miss Marie Rourke was true to her task, adequate in all ways and superior in many, was demonstrated during the thirty or forty years which she spent in preparing children for life, and teaching those same children's children later on in life. Many parents must have brought their darlings to her saying "Miss Marie, here is our child. We want you to teach him as you did us. We know you will do him good and we want him to learn under you."

Miss Rourke was good to all children, loving and teaching impartially, and they loved her and readily absorbed the knowledge she shared with them. But a successful teacher must do more than hand out problems and mark papers; she must supplement the home teaching, and in many, many instances supply the incentive toward better living utterly lacking in that child's own home, or else poorly supplied. The true teacher encourages, inspires and provides a way insofar as she is able for each child to realize some of his innermost ambitions. To such a teacher no way is closed, no heart is unheeding and no love is withheld.

This kind of woman is one of God's own noble-women, and of this class was Miss Marie Rourke. If there were some pupils who did not altogether love and honor her it was because they were not allowed to be disorderly or insubordinate in her presence, and these must have been few indeed, for she had a "way" with her, and without a great show of discipline soon won over those who disagreed with her administration of justice and knowledge.

Her passing reminds us anew that we should cherish our good teachers, showing them how much we appreciate what they are doing for our children and our generation. We should give them garlands and bouquets of living words and gracious acts while they are with us and not wait until they have left, and then tell each other with tears in our eyes and pain in our hearts how fine they were and how much we will miss them. To the credit of our fine staff of teachers be it said that there are many grand women giving their days and years to this task, and this will be made lighter and brighter by a word of praise from parents and pupils.

Miss Marie has left this mortal world for a happier sphere, but her memory will linger on, blessing all with whom she came in contact. The seventh verse of Second Timothy—"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day"—may well be written as her epitaph by those who knew her well.—IBJ.

SCHOOL BOARD GETS LOW BID ON SCHOOL BUILDING

Hattiesburg Firm's Bid Of $127,000
Lowest Contract To Be Awarded
And Construction Began Soon.

The board of trustees of the Pascagoula school district met Thursday and received sealed bids for alterations, additions and repairs to the present high school building and for erection of a new brick school building for the Pascagoula school district.

The bid of Newton and Schmid of Hattiesburg, Miss., totaling $127,000, was the lowest bid.

The other bidders and the amounts of their bids follow: M. T. Reed Construction Company, Biloxi, Miss., $130,000; Oden and Glenn, Hattiesburg, Miss., $137,400; Gandy and Corley, Raleigh, Miss., $140,000; John L. McElroy, Meridian, Miss., $139,000; Brice Building Company, Birmingham, Ala., $140,000; Collins Brothers Construction Company, Biloxi, Miss., $142,000; R. E. Turnsworth and Company, New Orleans, $143,552; A. Ziegendorfer, Pascagoula, $143,500. These bids were for repairs and construction only, the bids for equipment of the new building to be advertised and let at future dates.

The contract was not let at this meeting of the board, but probably will be at an adjourned meeting within the next few days, and no doubt, will go to the lowest bidder mentioned above. It is thought that all necessary preliminaries will be settled and that actual construction work will commence and be well under way by the first of the new year.

Missing Engineer Is Safe; Lands At Biloxi

Kenneth Frater, 30, Gulfport marine engineer of the yacht Oneida, who had been the object of search throughout yesterday, after he was adrift all Wednesday night in a small yawl, reached Biloxi Wednesday night on board a Pascagoula boat, which picked him up at Oyster Bay in the Louisiana marshes. Frater had been the object of search by Coast Guard planes and

TRAGIC DEATH OF MRS. EDGAR HULL

Wife Of Native Of Pascagoula
Killed By Fall In Home Of A Friend In New Orleans

Relatives and friends here of Dr. Edgar Hull of New Orleans, son of Mrs. Alice Hull of this city, were grieved and shocked to learn of the sudden and tragic death of Dr. Hull's young wife during the early hours of Sunday morning.

The Hulls had been attending an informal bridge party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Monti, in New Orleans, attended also by several medical associates of Dr. Hull, the party being held in celebration of the completion of the new home. About one o'clock a.m. Mrs. Hull, in preparing to go home, and not being familiar with the new house, mistook for the bathroom door, a door opening on a staircase to the basement, and stepping through the door fell, striking her head on the concrete floor at foot of the stairs. She was rushed to a hospital though there were several physicians present, but without equipment that the hospital offered, where she died a short while later, never having regained consciousness. The Orleans parish coroner pronounced her death as accidental and caused by a fracture of the base of the skull and cerebral hemorrhage. She died at 2:00 a.m. Sunday.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the First Presbyterian Church in Shreveport, her former home. She had resided in New Orleans six years. She is survived also by an infant daughter, Alice Louise Hull; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Parham, Shreveport; and two sisters, Mrs. L. T. Barnett and Mrs. Aletha Cherry, also of Shreveport.

Edgar Hull was born and reared in Pascagoula, and his many friends here, especially his schoolmates of former years, are deeply sympathetic in his sudden and tragic bereavement, and join this paper in expressions of condolence for him and his relatives, as well as the relatives of his beloved young wife.

Debtors accused of over extensions at Vancleave will be returned here Saturday.

They are Monroe Yates and a woman companion, Orie Price according to M. D. Johnson, investigating officer for the sheriff's department.

They were arrested Tuesday at Poplar Bluff, Mo., on a tip from his office, Johnson said. A search of the cabin car they were driving turned up a part of what is believed to be the missing property he added.

The pair wanted extradition on grand larceny charges. Sheriff James F. Glavin and chief Harold Jones left Wednesday for Poplar Bluff to return the couple.

According to Johnson five summer homes owned by people living in other parts of the state were broken into the night of Dec. 3.

Taken were electrical appliances, TV, radio, clothing, an outboard motor, boat and trailer.

"We figure value of the stolen property amounted to about $2000," Johnson said. "We had a full description of the car and information that they were in the vicinity of Poplar Bluff."

"We notified police there and they picked them up about 1 p.m. The day we didn't know the car was stolen at that time."

Yates is an ex-convict, having served a term in the state penitentiary at Parchman. The Price woman also served time in the Raiford State Penitentiary in Florida, the officer said.

Found in the car was a portable TV set similar to one taken in the breakins and a quantity of clothing and other articles matching the description.

Fire burns home in Ocean Springs

Fire destroyed a five room house Friday on Old Highway 90 near Ocean Springs.

The blaze at the home of Alvin Roberts broke out about 11:30 a.m., according to Ocean Springs fire chief Bernard Beauger.

A baby sitter playing with a young child of the Roberts' discovered the fire in a bedroom.

Beauger said Roberts was at work at Ingalls and his wife was visiting her mother when the fire occurred.

The wood frame house, built only a year ago, burned to the ground, the chief said.

Beauger said two fire trucks from Biloxi and one from Ocean Springs answered the fire about a mile from the house, he explained.

Direction finder helps CG cutter locate shrimper

The Coast Guard Wednesday with the aid of a radio direction finder located disabled fishing boat in heavy fog 30 miles south of Horn Island Pass.

Chief Howard Seaton, public relations officer of the cutter 95332 at Pascagoula, said the vessel Dixie Rose became disabled before day-break Wednesday when a trawl net tangled in her propeller.

The 60-foot boat was from Bayou La Batre, Seaton said.

The chief said Vicksburg was near zero on the cutter's oil pan the morning and the radio finder was instrumental in locating the crippled vessel.

Seaton said the cutter towed the boat to Horn Island. It was then taken into tow by another vessel from Alabama.

of the other stolen property.
Johnson said.

The car was stolen at Petal Nov. 9. Receipts found in it indicated the couple had purchased over $600 worth of tires on an oil company credit card belonging to the owner, the officer said.

Federal charges probably will be filed also against the couple for interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle, he added.

Johnson said the couple may also be connected with another burglary near Vancleave Dec. 18.

Thieves entered a house at Mike Young's fishing camp and made off with an undetermined amount of loot, including a television set and a sewing machine.

The stolen property belonged to a Petal couple who were renting the house.

Poplar Bluff police chief Elwood Whitworth told the Chronicle via telephone Thursday noon that the couple when first arrested, told authorities they were "travelling merchants."

Later under questioning, the chief said, the pair admitted the loot and the car were stolen but did not reveal from where.

At 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Whitworth said, sheriff's deputies had not arrived in Poplar Bluff. They were expected any hour to pick up the couple who are being held in Butler County Jail.

Whitworth said the two were arrested late Tuesday by Mississippi State Highway Patrolman Howard Rhodes.

Rhodes stopped the car on a routine check and in checking it uncovered the TV set, several new auto tires and other loot.

"They also had a large amount of cash in their possession," Whitworth said.

subduing suspected drunk

One Moss Point auxiliary policeman is hospitalized and another required emergency room treatment for injuries suffered in subduing a suspect about 10:40 p.m. Sunday.

Leon Bruce Merrill, 25, 9808 Oak Cliffe Drive, Pascagoula, was admitted to Singing River Hospital's surgical intensive care unit for treatment of a knife wound under the left arm. His condition is said to be satisfactory.

Alan Keith Moore was released after emergency room treatment for bruises.

Moore reported he and Merrill were on patrol when they saw a man, apparently drunk, walking north on Main Street near Busby-Cowart's appliance store.

When they attempted to check on him, Moore said, the man turned toward them, said something and resumed walking north. At this point, a Jackson County sheriff's reserve unit came to the aid of the Moss Point auxiliary officers.

Moore said that he got out of his patrol car near Dantzler Street and, when he ordered him to stop, the man turned toward him with an open knife.

The officer said the man cursed him, threatened his life when he ordered him to drop the knife and jumped on him. Moore said he struck the man several times with his night stick but the blows had no effect.

Merrill came to Moore's aid and struck the man from behind, Moore said. The man then turned on Merrill and stabbed him. The Moss Point officers and sheriff's reserve officers eventually succeeded in getting the man handcuffed after the struggle during which the man damaged Patrolman Mark Meiselbach's patrol car.

No charges have been filed against the suspect who reportedly has been taken for mental evaluation.

MRS. ALICE R. HULL

Back in the 90's a little red school house stood on the Telephone Road in the corner of a big lot. Some of the pupils were as old as the sweet faced young lady teacher, and twice as tall. Some were in their first year at school and some should have been in their last.

Applications were made for enrollment many months ahead, for every kid of school age in Pascagoula wanted to go to school to "Miss Alice."

Many years have passed since the days of the blue back speller, McGuffey's First Reader and the little school house of "Miss Alice". Many who attended that school are now leaders in this and other communities.

Since that time Mrs. Hull has taught many hundreds. The old wooden school, the new brick school and now the modern High School have known this greatest of all teachers.

Mrs. Hull, now teaching mathematics has taught every subject in High School. She has sponsored every class that ever graduated since the days of the wooden school. She has coached the winning debating teams, and during the summer months has helped many hundreds make up work so that they might go on with their classes in the fall.

Many classes have called her "The Mother of the Class" and she has always been relied upon to straighten out any little difficulties, real or imaginary, that arise in the class room or on the playground.

To have known Mrs. Hull and to have had her as a teacher and a friend has been a great blessing in the lives of many boys and girls. The best teacher that the schools of Jackson County have ever known, and loved by every pupil she has ever taught, Pascagoula's Hall of Fame could not be complete without "Miss Alice."
